Lioness Club Makes Plans For New Year

Newly-elected president, Thelma Chambers, called a special board meeting of the North Torrance Lioness Club recently to arrange a program and make plans for the coming year.

The new officers of the Club were installed at an installation dinner dance held in June, and include Flo McClayne, vice president; Shirley Cullum, treasurer; Nancy Parker, secretary; and Bonnie Nobbe, publicity chairman.

On Aug. 5, the business meeting will be a potluck dinner to be held at the home of Mrs. Chambers, 18703 Falda Ave., at 7:30 p.m. Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Nancy Parker.

LOCALITES ATTEND PILOT CONVENTION

Mrs. Leola Cork, president of the Pilot Club of Torrance, and Mrs. Peg DeJaifre, past president, have returned from their vacations, during which time they attended the 36th international convention of Pilot International at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

The localities witnessed the installation of Miss Billye Russell of Houston, Tex., as president of the club.

Neighborhood Shower Held for Bride-elect

A neighborhood luncheon served as the occasion for a surprise shower for bride-elect Sharon Benedict, 25829 Hillworth Ave.

Mrs. Betty English was hostess for the event which was attended by women who all live on the hillworth block.

Guests included Mmes. Elsie Ironmonger, Marian Merrill, Nell Sheets, Betty Blake, Betty Hilton, Eva Carver, Irene Waters, Katherine McLean, Chris Wietrich, Cookie Suguino, Amy Muro, Gloria Bacon and Mrs. Harriet Benedict, mother of the bride-to-be.

Guests presented Miss Benedict with an electric mixer and cooking utensils.

SERVICE AWARD . . . Mrs. Earl Miles (center) is shown receiving a 15-year Red Cross service bar. Mrs. William H. Cochran, liaison representative of volunteers (at right), helps to pin it on while Mrs. Gordon S. Jones, blood recruitment chairman, looks on. Mrs. Miles took the first canteen course given in Torrance and has worked in canteen continuously since that time. She has served the Torrance Red Cross chapter longer than any other volunteer.

Bridge Dessert

Mrs. Kenneth Dudley of Hollywood Riviera entertained last week at a bridge-dessert.

Guests were Mmes. Laura Felker, Gracemary Rhone, Martha Moffitt, Maxine Kendall, Lillian Schott, Juanita Thomson and Micky Rugraff.

Mrs. Felker took first prize and Mrs. Rugraff, second.

YWCA CAMP TRIP

Nancy Eisenbrandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt, 1012 Acacia Ave., left Tuesday for a week at the YWCA camp "Tahquitz Meadows."

While her daughter is away at camp, Mrs. Eisenbrandt will spend several days visiting her mother, Mrs. H. J. Schauer of Escondido.

P.E.O.s TO MEET

South Bay Group of Unaffiliated P.E.O.s will meet Wednesday July 24 in the home of Miss Imogene Spaulding, 820 Via Somente, Palos Verdes. Mrs. Bess Albee will preside.

CATALINA TRIP

Mrs. Delbert Thomsen and two children, Tommy and Kathy, will go to Catalina on July 20 to spend several days with Mrs. John Melville and children who are spending the summer at their Catalina home.

July Meeting Of Aquarium Society Set

The next meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society will be held on July 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the Recreation Hall at Mc-Masters Park, 174th and Yukon in North Torrance. President Irene Hares will open the meeting.

A guest speaker will be presented by program chairman Wressey Cocks and a movie will be shown. The show-fish chosen for display at this meeting is the Gourami, a fish family that contains many varieties. There will be a discussion about the plans for attendance at the Annual Aquarist Convention to be held in the fall at Marineland.

The door prize for the meeting will be a five gallon tank and hood. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Christine Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Paul V. Jones, 2030 Cabrillo, entertained at a birthday party on Thursday, honoring her godchild, Christine Franzen, who was 5 years old.

The patio was decorated with colored balloons. The circus theme was carried out in the table decorations and the centerpiece was a doll and a monkey. Circus hats and favors also added to the decor.

Two contests were held with prizes going to Cindy and Andrea Braly.

Christine opened an array of gifts and the children sang "Happy Birthday."

The large birthday cake with five doll candles was cut and served with ice cream and pink punch.

Attending were Mrs. Jean Rozum and daughters, Laurie Ann and Terri Lynn of Norwalk, Mrs. Ivy Franzen and daughters, Christine, Cindy, and Andrea Braly, Rita Kay Willy, Diane and Beverly Muhleck.

VISITORS VIEW SOUTHLAND SIGHTS

Mr. and Mrs. William Ireland of Kokomo, Ind., returned home Thursday following a 10-day vacation in Torrance.

While here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shepherd, 807 Beech Ave., the visitors toured the Southland taking in Knott's Berry Farm, Farmer's Market, Tajuanas and other points of interest.

Wm. Roberts' Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts, 21206 S. Vermont, were complimented at two events last Saturday evening celebrating their 17th wedding anniversary.

They were guests of honor at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf at their home, 21804 Halldale Ave. Others attending the dinner, which was served at a table centered with an arrangement of pink roses and pink candles, were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seeman.

After the dinner, the Roberts received an urgent telephone call from their children asking them to return home. Upon reaching home they found that Sally, Jimmie and Mary had invited a host of friends for a surprise anniversary party.

Dancing and cards were played and the group watched the "Miss Universe" pageant on television. A buffet supper was served.

Invited to this event were Messrs. and Mmes. Don Wolfe, Les Smith, Walt Hutchison, Eddie Bernardin, Robert Gilmore and Linda, Marvin Pike, Chandler Mock, William Tamash, Harry Seeman, and Mr. Bill Collins.

SOUTH SEA TOUR

Miss Freda Wahl, teacher in Delano, spent two weeks here with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wahl, 814 Patronella, before sailing last week from the local harbor aboard the Mariposa for the Fiji Islands, Samoa and Australia. Miss Wahl will return from her tour the latter part of August.

TO ICELAND

Staff Sergeant Leland Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean, left last week for his new assignment in Iceland. He will be there for one year. Mrs. Dean and their daughter, Janet Lee, left for Washington, D. C., to stay with her parents while their husband and father is at the Iceland Air Force Base.
